Exhibitor Testimonials

I truly believe ProPak is the best show I've experienced in Asia, especially for India. I was highly impressed by the volume and quality of customers and potential clients we engaged with

ROSE GRAFFIN CEO, Serac Packaging Solution Pvt Ltd

ProPak India has provided us with a focused, customer-centric platform to effectively connect with our clients. Backed by a trusted name like Informa and built on a strong reputation, ProPak has helped us engage with the right audience and showcase our offerings in a meaningful way.

PRERAK DAVE
Director,
Harikrushna Machines Pvt. Ltd

We've been actively participating in ProPak for the past 2–3 years, and the response has consistently been excellent. The exhibition attracts strong footfall, high-quality visitors, and meaningful customer interactions. It's a great opportunity to connect with existing clients, engage with potential customers, and generate valuable new enquiries. We're also gaining fresh ideas and insights that help us stay ahead in the industry.

DR. GEORG FRÖHLICHSales Manager,
Glatt Systems Private Limited

We're thrilled to be part of Propak India: it's proving to be an excellent platform to connect with buyers and have meaningful one-on-one conversations. As an Informa brand, it comes with a strong reputation and a wide reach among industry buyers. We're confident that being here will help us grow and strengthen our presence in the marketROI for our business.

KARAN MEGHANI Director, Wraptech Machines Pvt. Ltd

ProPak has been incredibly valuable for us. We've connected with high-quality customers, generated strong enquiries, and seen a direct impact on our sales. We chose ProPak because of its proven ability to bring together both existing and new clients. It continues to be a powerful platform for business growth and industry engagement.

SUNIL MAHADIK COO, Starpac India Ltd

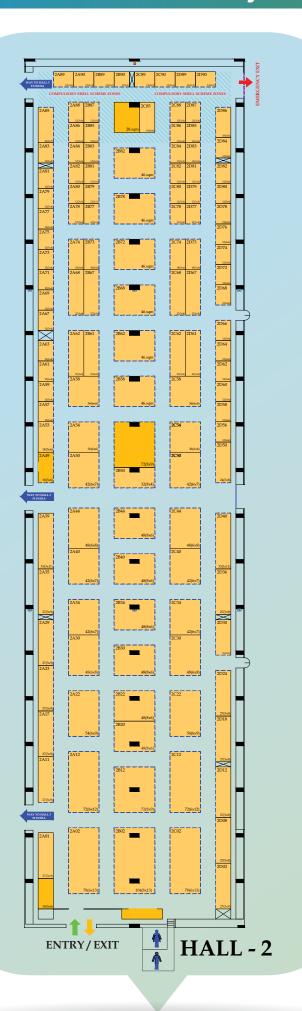

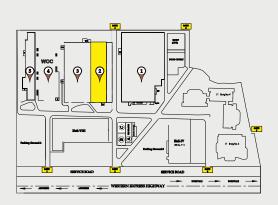

Propak has consistently been a strong platform for us over the years, and this year's edition has been no exception: well-organized with a solid turnout. What sets Propak apart is the quality of its audience; it's an ideal space to connect with potential customers and showcase our latest innovations.
